100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

I will give the above reward for apprehending and securing said fellow so that I get him again, and reasonable charges if brought home.

Oct 8 JOHN A. STEWART.

Notice,

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RATCLIFFE,
Fairfax Court-House, Va.

Said mulatto man is about 23 years of age, 6 feet high, stout and well made, has lost the first joint of the fore finger on his left hand.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly; had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. As I am a large dealer in Military Bounty Lands, I can supply any number that may be required.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1819.

Gen. JAMES MILLER, Governor of the territory of Arkansaw, arrived at Strother's hotel, in Washington, on Friday evening last. He was accompanied by Col. JOHN M'NEAL, jun. of the army.

Norfolk, September 17.

The U. S. frigate CONSTELLATION, captain Wadsworth, got under way from her anchorage between the forts yesterday afternoon, about 5 o'clock, and anchored in the Bite of Craney Island, whence, we understand, she will go to sea the first wind.

DON LOUIS DE ONIS.

From our late European papers we gather the following facts respecting this diplomatist. He passed from the United States to England, and from thence to Paris, where he heard of the removal of the prime minister, the marquis d' Cassa Yrujo; and immediately posted for Madrid.—When he had reached Valladolid—more than half way from the frontier to the capital—he received a royal mandate to stop, and not approach nigher to Madrid. Afterwards he was arrested, and conducted to a convent near Avila, not far from Madrid, where a court of enquiry was ordered to convene to investigate certain charges made against him and the above marquis, who have been ordered to the same place of confinement. The general newspaper opinion in Spain was, that the charges allude to the grant of lands in the Floridas, made during the negociation of the late treaty for their cession to the U. States, in which instrument there is a clause limiting their extent. [Boston Centinel.

Clarksburg, September 15.

SUDDEN TRANSITION.

John Sutor, the unfortunate wretch who was convicted at the late superior court for Lewis county, of committing one of the most diabolical and unnatural acts that could be conceived by man, we are informed, started for Richmond on Monday last. On the 8th of August he committed the act—in two weeks he was taken up, and in two weeks more he was tried, convicted, and started for the penitentiary—The following memorandum was handed to us by a gentleman of the bar:

John Sutor was apprehended for two rapes committed on his infant daughter Elizabeth—one of them said to have been committed on or about the 22d of July last, in the loft of his own house—the other said to have been committed in his blacksmiths shop, on or about the 8th of August last. The grand jury of the late superior court for Lewis county, found two indictments against him for these two offences; and at the same term of the court he was tried and convicted on one of these indictments, charging him with the rape last committed, at his shop, and was thereon sentenced to the penitentiary for fifteen years.—The other indictment was not tried, the attorney for the Commonwealth entering a Nolle Prosequi as to that indictment. Elizabeth Sutor, on whom the rapes were committed, had the appearance of a girl about 13, and was said to be between 13 and 14 years of age. She was born when John Sutor was married to and living with her mother.—From her earliest infancy until after his apprehension for said offence, she had always been known and called in the family the daughter of Sutor, called him her father, as she had always been taught to do, and knew nothing to the contrary.—It was, however, intimated, though not proved, that her mother was pregnant with her at the time she was married to John Sutor. [Virginian.

Charleston, September 15.

PRISONERS ESCAPED.

John Fisher, who was convicted of highway robbery at the last court of sessions; and Joseph Roberts, who was awaiting his trial for a similar crime, made their escape from prison on Monday evening last, by forcing a hole through the wall under one of the windows, from whence they descended by means of their blankets.—We understand, from undoubted authority, that the above, with several other convicts, had been allowed the liberty of the debtors' apartment for some time. This we conceive, was an unwarrantable privilege, and the proper officer or officers will, no doubt, be amenable to the offended laws of the state therefor. His excellency the governor has issued his proclamation, offering a reward of 500 dollars for the apprehension of Fisher. [Gaz.

A late English paper says, "his majesty's sloop Lee, captain Blacker, lately returned to Portsmouth, has succeeded in recovering from the pirates of the patriot ship Louisa, (destroyed off Charleston) a box containing about 5000*l.* in coins of various nations, (part of the plunder made at Bonavista) and wearing apparel bearing the names of Smith and Hall, two gentlemen who were passengers in the schooner Sir Thomas Hardy, one of the vessels which the pirates plundered off the Western Islands. It is a remarkable circumstance, that the leader, or principal man among the pirates was one of the mutineers in his majesty's ship Hermione, the commander of which ship (Pigot) it will be remembered, the crew murdered, and afterwards carried the frigate into the Spanish port of La Guayra. His name is Clarke, alias Cory."

The number of new cases of fever reported to the Board of Health on Saturday morning, is nineteen; to these must be added thirteen more, reported by Dr. Martin, of the Point, on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The new cases reported on Sunday morning amount to twenty-three.

The subsequent reports received at the Health Office, made the whole number of new cases of fever for the twenty-four hours ending on Sunday morning, amount to thirty-nine.

The new cases reported on Monday morning amount to nineteen. [American.

LATE AND INTERESTING INTELLIGENCE FROM THE WEST INDIES.

We are indebted to Mr. William G. Lyford, Keeper of the Steam Boat Hotel Reading Room, for the following extract of a letter from his attentive and intelligent correspondent at Bermuda, and also for the subsequent selections from West-India papers of late date, received by him per the same vessel.

"Bermuda, August 30, 1819

"I have just received a letter from a respectable merchant in Trinidad, informing me that "Barcelona (on the Spanish Main) has been captured by Colonel INGLIS, (or English,) with about a thousand British troops, and Colonel Ursler, with 400 Germans and 400 Creole troops; and that a fleet under BRION had captured about 20 vessels of different descriptions belonging to the royalists, some of which were armed. The Nymphe, the largest vessel escaped by fast sailing and got into Cumana, which place is besieged by the independent squadron and the army which took Barcelona. All the women belonging to the independent army, were in a transport which fell into the possession of the royalists. Barcelona and Cumana are the only towns of much importance in point of size and population between Angostura and Caraccas. Angostura is the head-quarters of the independents, and Caraccas that of Morillo, the royalist chief. The taking of Caraccas is the great object to which the independents aspire; and to that end it is necessary for Barcelona and Cumana to be secured by garrisons of their own forces first, that they need not have an enemy in their rear as well as their front."

Bermuda, August 28

It comes within the sphere of our observation, as correct and faithful recorders of passing occurrences, to notice another buccaneering excursion of one of the freebooters of the Carribean seas, whose name has already become familiar to our readers. Monsieur AURY has long figured as a most gallant marauder, and one of the patriots who is struggling to break the chains of despotism which enslave the liberties of South America! The island of Old Providence, long famed as a rendezvous for pirates, has been for some months past the asylum of Aury, who has several vessels of different descriptions under his command, principally manned by runaway negroes. This island is about 150 miles eastward of the Musquito shore, (Honduras) in about lat. 13 25, N. lon. 80 44, W. to the southward and westward of Jamaica. It is said to be 11 miles long, by 4 in breadth.—From this place, an expedition, (fitted out by Aury) lately proceeded to the gulf of Dulce, to the westward of Honduras, a particular account of which is given as follows in the Jamaica Courant of the 28th July ultimo:

Operations of the Robber Aury!

"It appears that the above free-booter communicated a few months since with the leaping Hero of Porto Bello, in order to make a joint attack on some part of the Spanish Main. Aury did not agree to the proposals of M'Gregor, as they bore every mark of inconsistency and moral impossibility. However, as they both had the same idea of making money, by robbing defenceless individuals, M'Gregor was assisted by every means in Aury's power to forward his views, at the attack on Porto-Bello.

"On the 29th of April, Aury and a horde of banditti embarked from Old Providence, on board of the Buenos Ayrean brig Congress, for the river Dulce, where they arrived on the 10th of May, with two other vessels. On the evening of the same day he debarked a parcel of the robbers, with an officer, who took possession of a fort at the entrance of the river—not, however, until he had received a cannonade from its soldiery. On the 13th, Aury, at the head of 140 renegadoes, proceeded to the town of St. Philip, a distance of thirty miles, which he reached very early on the succeeding morning. As soon as he was descried, a brisk fire was opened on him from the battery, of 9, 12, 18, and 24 pounders, with small arms, which, however, did little or no mischief. When Aury's band had reached within a few yards of the landing place, they commenced firing, and shortly afterwards established a footing on shore, at which time a considerable consternation ensued, and from the state of discipline of the Spaniards in that quarter, the robbers obtained possession of the two forts, as well as of the town, without much trouble. Ripe for plunder, they proceeded 30 miles up the Gulph of Dulce to the village of Isabella, which they took by surprise.

"The plunder made during the above operations, consisted of cochineal, indigo, balsams, and boxes of money. They afterwards made an attack upon a schooner and two sloops, which they captured, the former had on board 50,000 dollars, and upwards of 200 boxes of indigo. It is stated that Aury having some qualms of conscience, respecting robbing of churches, took away from some of his banditti, a parcel of plate, garments, &c. belonging to places of worship, and delivered them up to an old Spanish woman, who had been unfortunately wounded during the fray.

"Aury had returned to Old Providence to divide the booty, and it was expected it would all be sold, in the course of next month, and then that each robber would have his proportion.

"Since the above was written, we learn that Aury appeared off Old Harbor, on Saturday in the brigantine Congress, and communicated with this City, in order to make known his proceedings, during his marauding expedition.

"All accounts concur in the necessity of repressing these buccanneering expeditions fitted out by English subjects against the Royalists of South America. We are happy to find that the Foregn Enlistment Bill is likely to pass the British Legislature. It is a measure of the wisest policy, and will we hope, be a convincing proof to the Spaniards that the British Government are averse to their subjects being engaged in such a contest. To assist in giving South America freedom is the ostensible reason held out by the partifans of the cause; but plunder is the sole object of every person who is engaged in it."

"Aury, we believe, is a kind of independent Marauder, acting generally for himself alone, though occasionally assisting M'Gregor, the SANSCULOTTE hero, who commenced his career in the notable expedition of General Miranda, against Coro, in the Caraccas. Aury appears to be a very cool, calculating adventurer; for he favors M'Gregor only when there is a fair prospect of success.

Nassau, (N. P.) July 24.

At the commencement of the month, captain Job Northrop, commanding the Artigan privateer called the La Constantia anchored at Ragged Island for the purpose of celebrating the Anniversary of American independence (4th inst.) On this joyous occasion, it is said, a dispute took place among some of the crew who were of different nations; and the following morning Captain Northrop put eight on shore on pretence of their being mutinous. The remonstrances of the inhabitants against the measure had only the effect of inducing him to promise, that if the men were sent to Nassau he would see the vessel safely down, which however he failed to do.—They arrived here on Saturday last, in a sloop boat, and are committed to gaol until conveyances can be found to take them away. The real cause of their being landed, we understand, was his being short of provisions, & having made a bad cruise.

☞ In the Bermuda Gazette of the 21st August, it was stated that the schr. Hero, Smally, of Digby, N. S. was boarded by two schooners under American colors, by the largest of which she was robbed of sundry articles of cargo, stores, &c. The Trinidad Gazette, from which this account is taken, contains the following additional particulars:

The Boarding Officer left with Capt. Smally, a paper written in Spanish, a true translation of which is as follows:—

Sinora Ganvorino and Sinora Galino, will pay at sight twenty three dollars for Stores taken at Sea from the English schr. Hero, for the use of their vessel, and in testimony whereof, I have signed these presents at sea on board the aforesaid schooner the 18th July, 1819.

ANTONIO BUSCALO.

23 dolls.

And in further for a Gaff twenty dollars,

ANTONIO BUSCALO.

Total 43 dolls.

The smallest schooner, about 90 tons burthen, boarded and took a small quantity of dry'd Fish, which belonged to one of the seamen, for which he paid, and other-wise behaved civil; on her stern was—"BRUTUS or NORFOLK." The man who boarded spoke in Spanish—during all this time the two schooners kept several men at the mast head looking out. The large schooner sent on board the Hero three times—The small schr. once.

Kingston, (Jam.) July 28.

Recent advices from Porto Bello communicate the following information.—

In consequence of the interruption to the trade, from buccaneers and pirates, the vessels which had arrived at Panama from San Blas, did not carry a single dollar. All the treasure which was to have gone thro' the first named city, had been sent to Vera Cruz, at which place it is expected it would have arrived if not detained at Mexico. A considerable part is due to merchants in this Island. The Royalists themselves will not purchase goods with their specie, as they are determined not to risque the carrying of the merchandize to Panama.

Many of the principal merchants at Panama, began to despair of the arrival of a British man of war, and have sent directions to Lima, to remit their money by the first safe conveyance to England, or North America.

No sale could be found for British manufactured goods at Panama. The trade carried on between this and that city is almost entirely destroyed: but which might be averted, if the British flag was allowed to afford it protection in the South sea.

Directions had been transmitted to Gen. Hore, to have all the misguided British subjects shot, who had fallen into possession of the Royalists after the re-capture of Porto Bello. With a philanthropy which will ever redound to his credit, the sentence has not been carried into execution; and they were treated with as much leniency as could be expected, considering the rash and precipitate manner in which they had sought their own misfortunes.

Official accounts had been received by Gen. Hore of the sailing of two Spanish frigates from Cadiz, which it was expected will arrive next month. They were directed to touch at Lima, and are intended for the protection of the trade between that port and Panama.

His Majesty's frigate Andromache, had sailed from the South Sea to convoy to a certain latitude, the Blossom, merchantship, bound to England with a large sum in specie.

July 31.

The brigantine Gustavus, Depoal, which arrived yesterday, furnishes the following:

"On the 6th inst. while the brigantine was taking in her cargo in the bay of Carnesal, a schr. was observed standing towards the Bay. At 1, P. M. the schooner set her square-sail and stood for the Gustavus, till within gun shot. Capt. Depoal, supposing from her appearance she was a Spanish guarda-costa, from Rio de la Hache, ordered the guns to be loaded, hoisted Dutch colors, and fired a gun to leeward. The schr. continuing still to stand in, she fired a second and third gun to keep them off; but perceiving she persisted in nearing them, they fired their small arms at her: The schooner commenced firing her guns and small arms, until she got alongside. The Captain of the schr. then ordered his crew to board; and cut down every living soul of them! They then plundered her of nine muskets, ten cutlasses, all her powder, and several other articles belonging to the people.—The Captain of the schooner then ordered the Captain of the brigantine on board the former vessel, where he examined his papers and threatened to put him in irons. Capt. Depoal, asked the people in the schooner, the name of their vessel and captain; in reply, they said, the captain was called Clarke, but refused giving the name of the vessel—they, however, said she was from Montego Bay. The schooner had one man killed and three wounded. She remained in the bay three days repairing her sails, and then proceeded to sea;—none of the crew of the brigantine received any injury.

From the Cortes del Orinoco of August 4.

Trinidad, August 4.

Translation of an official dispatch from Gen. Marino to the President of the Republic, dated Head Quarters, Chispero, the 13th of June, 1819.

Excellent Sir,

The detached corps of the Eastern Army having joined in the city of St. Diego, my first views were directed to remount the cavalry, a great part of which was not in a state of active service. On the 1st inst. I obtained information, by a vidette from Unare, that the enemy were going out to forage; and to intercept them. I ordered the squadron of the Monagas Lancers to march, with directions to attack, if they were not too numerous—otherwise to make a demonstration on his rear. On the 9th, Lieut. Col. Sotillo, under whose command I had placed this corps, reported, that he had followed the King's troops to Santa Maria—in consequence of which, at 8 o'clock on the morning of the 10th, I put the infantry in motion, in light marching order, under the command of Gen. Montilla, following myself with the Hussars at 4 in the evening. During the night I joined the infantry, and the following day (the 11th) fell in with Lieut. Col. Sotillo, who had taken a number of prisoners from the enemy, then encamped on the bank of the Lax razo. I now obtained certain intelligence that the enemy's force, of 1550 men, had burned the village of Poa, and were on their retreat.

It being then 7, P. M. and the troops much fatigued, we pursued the march only at midnight, advancing myself with a corps d'Elite of 80 cavalry, to observe the enemy, and keep him skirmishing, to give time for the main body of the army to come up. On the 12th, at 7 in the morning, after a fatiguing march of 8 leagues, we got sight of the enemy's rear, which halted & took up a good position. I immediately charged with my corps d'Elite; but the enemy having brought forward all his cavalry, I made a feint of retiring, to draw him down into the open country; and having allowed him to pursue us for a short time, we made a volte face, charging instantly in two columns, as had been previously ordered; by which we succeeded in defeating him, with the loss of of 40 killed and a number of horses (saddled) taken, driving his cavalry before us, to his line of infantry.

He then began to retire in close columns supposing our whole force to be up; of having ordered the infantry and main body to advance with the greatest expedition, and formed it in two divisions at Caluta—one of which I took under my command, composed of 400 Cazadores, commanded by Col. Cova; 20 Cabalmeers by Lieut. Col. Sotillo; and 80 Lancers of the corps d'Elite—the other, under Gen. Montilla, composed of the infantry of the line, under Col. Myres; of the Hussars, covering in column the left flank; and the Monagas Lancers, under Lieut. Col. Manuel Aravalo, the right. The Guerillas, in steady order, kept up a heavy fire on the enemy, all along the bank of the Unare, which is covered with thick underwood, a part of his troops retiring by the lower river at same time.

The bravery of the troops was conspicuous—the infantry by the mountain and river, the cavalry on the plain, pursued in admirable order the King's troops five leagues, until they reached the Chispero, where they began to disperse, and were butchered in a horrible manner—the Spanish commanding officers having committed such cruelties and abominations on his entering this territory, that it was impossible to restrain the vengeance of the soldiers, and only 100 prisoners were saved by the officers' exertions.

All the rest of his force, except about 100 men, remained killed or wounded in the field; with 1 brass four pounder; 800 muskets, bayonets, and accoutrements; 10,000 cartridges loose, 12,000 in cases; a black draperce; a standard; 120 lances with flags attached; drums, files, bugles, medicine chest, and all his official papers and correspondence. Among the enemy's dead are many Spanish American officers, and two surgeons; of the former, 13 have been recognized by the prisoners, one being the Commandant in second of the Queen's, Don Antonio Delgarde.

On our part, the loss amounts to 24 killed, and 47 wounded, all severely.—Among the former is Lieutenant Colonel Andres Bello, of the Hussars; and of the latter, Lieut. Col. Josef Maria Arguindegui, the Lieut. Col. of the Barcelona brigade, Josef Maria Gomez, and of the Hussars, Lieut. Col. Crespo. The Commander-in-Chief, Arana, and a few of his suite, owe their lives to a dark night and heavy rain; they escaped on foot, by unfrequented paths in the mountains, leaving their horses and mules, 150 in number, behind them.

It was impossible for all the corps of which this army is composed, to be in at the death.

General Sedeno's cavalry arrived some hours after the action terminated, notwithstanding the expedition of their march from St. Diego. The division of general Bermudas are still behind, but momently expected. All the artillery, and 100 men of the line, were left at St. Diego, to guard the hospital & park of reserve.

Such has been the issue of the Spanish expedition, composed of all the corps they had in this province, and 8 companies of the Queen's joined from Cumana. Of 1000 infantry—150 cavalry—about the same number of volunteers from St. Matteo, and 250 flecheras, only about 100 men escaped. SANTIAGO MARINO.

New-York, September 10.

MR. GOURLAY.

We have already mentioned in our paper, that this celebrated political reformer had been convicted in Upper Canada, of what the law terms a misdemeanor, and banished from the Province. The Niagara Gleaner of the 28th ult. gives the following information—"On Saturday last, the famous Mr. Gourlay passed over the river in the ferry-boat at this town, after brushing the dust off his boots."

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to near Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be goverued by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the

Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. Wm Hawley, Washington,
Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Alexandria,
Rev. Oliver Norris, Alexandria,
Rev Reuel Keith, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines. But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid.

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26
